CPALS @ Festival of Hope

Saturday, September 23

The Carolina Girls joined CPALS to partner with UNC hospitals. Several team members including Caroline Combs, Sarah Parker Harris, Meredith Pritchard, Gabby Simal, and Ally York volunteered their time in the oncology department to spend a fun day with the children. Some activities included face painting, crafts, and dancing too! We loved spreading joy into our local community!

Fall Recruitment Clinic

Sunday, September 24

The UNC Dance Team hosted our first recruitment clinic of the season! High school students signed up to spend a full day sharing their talents with the coaches, while learning what it's like to be a Carolina Girl. The day began with a technique class and later participants learned Jazz, Pom, and Hip Hop routines. Ending the day learning about the game experience, a Q&A with the coaches, and a senior solo showcase. The talent was extraordinary, and several stand out participants were recognized at the conclusion of the day.
